

6 Days Umbwe Route

THE STEEP SOUTHERN CHALLENGE

Umbwe rises aggressively through the southern forest and onto a spectacular ridge before joining the Southern Circuit near Barranco. It is physically demanding and offers less early acclimatization time than longer routes; we position it for experienced, well-conditioned trekkers who understand high-altitude risk.

Day by day

DAY 01

Umbwe Gate to Umbwe Cave Camp

1,600 m → 2,850 m · 11 km · 5–7 hrs · Rainforest · +1,250 m

A steep, sustained climb through dense forest. Efficient pacing is essential from the first day.

DAY 02

Umbwe Cave to Barranco Camp

2,850 m → 3,900 m · 6 km · 4–6 hrs · Forest to moorland · +1,050 m

Continue along the dramatic ridge as the forest opens, reaching Barranco beneath the Breach Wall.

DAY 03

Barranco to Karanga Camp

3,900 m → 3,995 m · 5 km · 4–5 hrs · Alpine desert · +95 m

Climb the Barranco Wall and traverse to Karanga. The shorter stage gives additional time for recovery.

DAY 04

Karanga to Barafu Camp

3,995 m → 4,673 m · 4 km · 3–4 hrs · High alpine desert · +678 m

Move to summit base camp, rest and complete final health and equipment checks.

DAY 05

Barafu to Uhuru Peak to Mweka Camp

4,673 m → 3,100 m · 17 km · 12–16 hrs · Arctic summit to rainforest · +1,222 m · –2,795 m

A midnight summit push via Stella Point to Uhuru Peak, followed by a major descent to Mweka Camp.

DAY 06

Mweka Camp to Mweka Gate

3,100 m → 1,640 m · 10 km · 3–4 hrs · Rainforest

Finish through the forest and return to Moshi after park formalities.
