

7 Days Rongai Route

THE QUIET NORTHERN APPROACH

Approaching Kilimanjaro close to the Kenyan border, Rongai offers a quieter perspective of the mountain and a gradual early profile. The route crosses the Saddle toward Kibo Hut and descends via Marangu, creating a satisfying north-to-southeast traverse.

Day by day

DAY 01

Rongai Gate to Simba Camp

1,950 m → 2,625 m · 8 km · 4–5 hrs · Forest / heath · +675 m

Begin on the quieter northern side through cultivated land, forest and open heath.

DAY 02

Simba Camp to Second Cave

2,625 m → 3,450 m · 6 km · 3–4 hrs · Heath · +825 m

A steady climb with increasingly open views across the northern plains.

DAY 03

Second Cave to Kikelewa Camp

3,450 m → 3,600 m · 6 km · 3–4 hrs · Moorland · +150 m

Traverse southeast toward the jagged Mawenzi massif. The modest sleeping gain supports acclimatization.

DAY 04

Kikelewa to Mawenzi Tarn

3,600 m → 4,330 m · 5 km · 4–5 hrs · Alpine desert · +730 m

Climb beneath Mawenzi's dramatic spires to one of Kilimanjaro's most striking camps. Optional acclimatization walk if appropriate.

DAY 05

Mawenzi Tarn to Kibo Hut

4,330 m → 4,700 m · 8 km · 5–6 hrs · Alpine desert · +370 m

Cross the lunar Saddle between Mawenzi and Kibo to the final summit base.

DAY 06

Kibo Hut to Uhuru Peak to Horombo Hut

4,700 m → 3,720 m · 20 km · 12–16 hrs · Arctic summit to moorland · +1,195 m · –2,175 m

Climb via Gilman's Point and the crater rim to Uhuru Peak, then make the long descent to Horombo Hut.

DAY 07

Horombo Hut to Marangu Gate

3,720 m → 1,860 m · 20 km · 5-7 hrs · Moorland / rainforest

Descend through Mandara and forest to Marangu Gate, then transfer to Moshi.
